

Sample Notes and Works Cited Page

Name of Student Assignment Number
Date Submitted

Notes - - -

Catholic Church. Diocese of Brooklyn. Diocese of Immigrants : The Brooklyn Catholic Experience, 1853-2003. Strasbourg, France: Éditions du Signe, 2004.

p1. French Jesuits laid the ground work for Catholicism in NY State.

p9. Revision to the New Amsterday charter denied religious freedom to the “Romish religion.

p9. English North America of the early colonies remained united in their “detestation of Roman Catholicism”

p10 in 1777 the NYS Constitution allowed freedom of religion but still required an oath against foreign allegiances “both ecclesiastical and civil”.

p11 1785 – New York Cities first Catholic Parish.

p13 Brooklyn established as a village

p14 It is believed that Brooklyn’s first Mass took place in 1820 p16 First Catholic church (St. James) opened in Brooklyn in 1823.

p16 ...

p57 ...

p119 ...

[For each additional item in this assignment create the same type record as shown above.]

Works Cited List - - -

Works Cited

Almeida, Linda Dowling. Irish Immigrants in New York City, 1945-1995. Bloomington:

Indiana University Press, 2001.

Berrol, Selma Cantor. The Empire City : New York and its People, 1624-1996. Westport, Conn: Praeger, 1997.

---. Immigrants at School, New York City, 1898-1914. New York: Arno Press, 1978, 1967.

Bogen, Elizabeth. Immigration in New York. New York: Praeger, 1987.

Brown, Mary Elizabeth. Churches, Communities, and Children : Italian Immigrants in the Archdiocese of New York, 1880-1945. Staten Island: CMS, 1995.

Catholic Church. Diocese of Brooklyn. Diocese of Immigrants : The Brooklyn Catholic Experience, 1853-2003. Strasbourg, France: Éditions du Signe, 2004.